Global Updates

According to WHO, total confirmed cases worldwide is 8,993,659 with 469,587 deaths. The top three affected countries include USA, Brazil and Russian Federation. The number of total confirmed cases, new cases and total deaths respectively are as follows: USA (2,268,753; 27,575 and 119,761), Brazil (1,085,038; 17,459 and 50,617) and Russian Federation (599,705; 7,425 and 8, 359). In the U.S. the nation’s top infectious disease expert, Dr Fauci has testified about the coronavirus pandemic, that the virus was not yet under control in the United States, contradicting President Trump who claimed last week that the virus would just ‘fade away’. Latin America and the Caribbean have exceeded 100,000 (100,145) deaths from the virus as Brazil, one of the hardest hit countries, accounts for more than half of the total according to a John Hopkins tally and government figures. Mexico has recorded another highest single day spike (more than 6,000) in coronavirus cases as reported by its health ministry. Beijing has recorded its lowest new coronavirus cases (7), since a wholesale food market was shut down on June 13 after becoming the centre of a new outbreak. German authorities have ordered a new lockdown for an entire district of Guetersloh, following an outbreak at a slaughter house that has infected more than 1,500 workers. In Africa, there are 232,215 confirmed cases and 5,117 deaths. South Africa has the highest record of 101,590 confirmed cases and 1,991 deaths; followed by Nigeria (20, 919 confirmed cases, and 525 deaths); Ghana (14, 154 confirmed cases, with 85 deaths) and Algeria (11,920 confirmed cases, with 852 deaths). South Africa is set to begin Africa’s first COVID—19 vaccine trial this week, to vaccinate 2,000 people with the vaccine known as ChAdOx1 nCoV-19 as the country has recorded the highest number of cases in Africa.

Nigeria
